

Enter the Labyrinth

A Journey Through Myth & Mystery!

Heroes, mortals, and legends—are you ready to test your fate?

Your job is to find your way through the labyrinth of 3 worlds. Heaven (2nd floor), Earth (1st floor), and the Underworld (Basement). Each floor will have two tasks, one of which when completed, will allow you to go to the next world.

Will you conquer the maze or be lost in legend? 🏛️👁️👁️

⚡ Realm of the Gods ⚡

Heaven: You begin in the divine heights of Heaven, where only the most clever and skilled may stay. To remain, you must pass the right trials

Icarus' Flight:

Craft a paper airplane that can soar at least six feet. Will your creation fly like Icarus, or will it fall too soon?

⚡ Zeus' Favorite Ambrosia:

Hidden among seven bottles lies the nectar of the gods. Use riddles and logic to find the one true ambrosia before Zeus grows angry.

Among Gods & Men

Earth: You now go to Earth, where gods have tested mortals for centuries. Which trail must you take to pass?

Prometheus' Flames:

Scattered across the land are symbols of fire—the gift Prometheus stole from Olympus. Find them, capture proof, and return to the titan to prove your worth.

Wings of Pegasus:

Track down the Wings of Freedom backdrop and capture a photo with the legendary Pegasus. Only those who do will earn the favor of the gods.

Trials of Afterlife

Underworld: Brave souls, your adventure ends in the Underworld, where shadows lurk and the Fates test your resolve. How should you escape?

Odysseus' Prophecy:

Seek the hidden prophet deep within the labyrinth. Only those who find him will receive a cryptic vision that may guide—or mislead—you.

Charon and the River Styx:

Blindly reach into the ferryman's pouch and draw your fate. A gold coin grants you favor; a silver coin lets you pass, but without reward.
